Headline:
A bright and sunny weekend. Frosts overnight.

Today:
A frosty start but quickly warming up with plenty of sunshine. Some fair weather cloud will bubble up inland during the afternoon, staying sunny along the coasts with a cool breeze. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Tonight:
A dry night with intermittent cloud across the region. Some localised frosty conditions may form where there are brief spells of clear skies. Minimum temperature -1 deg C (30 deg F).

Sunday:
Another fine and dry day with prolonged sunny spells. Feeling warm for most with light winds. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
A similar pattern of cold, frosty starts followed by bright and sunny days. From Wednesday, possibly a bit cloudier with a chance of light rain at times.
